

ESTIGMAS

A Film by Adán Aliaga

Based on comic by Mattotti and Piersanti

An impoverished drunkard who has lost his parents, his faith and his self-respect is the last person you'd expect to receive the signs of sainthood: the bleeding palms of stigmata.

It will take us to a mysterious and oniric world, showing us Bruno's stigmated hands and the most intense and universal feelings: loneliness, love, cruelty, hope, death...

“Bruno wakes up with bloody hands. From now on he has to live with these new stigmas.”
